DESCENDANTS OF CHARLES TRIPP (1812-1878) OF WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN

Research by Jan E. Tripp, Ann Arbor, Michigan

OBJECTIVE

I've often been asked if I am related to Charles Tripp of Ann Arbor. There is at least one "Charles Tripp" in every generation in my family going back to my Revolutionary War ancestor, Charles Tripp (1761-1844). Perhaps there is a family connection. I launched a more in-depth study that sprang from research I did for Scott Price in May 2005. (Price was a business partner with Tripp.) I was also intrigued by Charles' mechanical skills and his connection to the engineering school at the University of Michigan, my alma mater.

My Tripp family, as it turns out, is only distantly related to Charles Tripp of Ann Arbor. Both families probably descend from John Tripp, who arrived in Portsmouth, Rhode Island, in 1640.

GENEALOGICAL SUMMARY FOR CHARLES TRIPP

1. CHARLES[1] TRIPP, born 12 December 1812 in Epson, New Hampshire, the son of Richard and Sarah (Critchett) Tripp;[1] died 16 January 1878 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw County, Michigan.[2] He married 23 December 1849 in Ann Arbor, Margaret Henning.[3] Margaret was born 15 May 1823 in Newry, Ireland, the daughter of James and Mary (Ferguson) Henning;[4] died 1 February 1905 in Ann Arbor.[5] Both are buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Ann Arbor.

Charles was "a mechanical genius" according to his cousin, Bryon Cutcheon. As a small boy, he carved a violin with a pen knife. By the time he left home at age sixteen, he had invented numerous machines. It was only natural that when he left home, he studied cabinet making in Concord, New Hampshire. A year later he removed to Matteawan, Dutchess County, New York, where he was engaged in metal casting pattern making. From there he went to Lyons, Wayne County, New York, and then to Ann Arbor in 1838. In 1843 he formed a partnership with Volney Chapin in the foundry business. The business employed 60 men making plows, mill machinery, saw mill engines and boilers. As a testament to his mechanical skills, he built an engine for a laboratory of the University of Michigan, "which was so perfect that it went together without any adjusting." The factory was located at the southwest corner of Huron and First Streets.

Charles' political life began in 1847 when he was elected an Ann Arbor City Trustee.[6] In 1855 he served in the 18th Michigan legislature, representing Ann Arbor for one term. At the same time, he was elected to the Ann Arbor school board.[7] In 1858 he served as Ann Arbor Township Supervisor and later served as the county chairman of the newly formed Republican party.[8]

Besides the foundry, Charles had other business interests in Ann Arbor. In 1858 he was a founding director of Ann Arbor's first gas company, the Ann Arbor Gas Light Company. Today the MichCon service center on Broadway is located on a former site of the company. A predecessor to the Ann Arbor Fire Department, the Eagle Fire Company No. 1 was re-organized in 1864 with Charles Tripp as Chief Engineer.

The First National Bank of Ann Arbor was the county's first bank. Established in 1863 with $75,000 capital, it served the community for over 100 years. Charles Tripp served as a bank director. The men who founded the bank are long gone, but the ten-story First National Bank building still stands at the southeast corner of Washington and Main Streets in downtown Ann Arbor. When the Romanesque style building was built in 1927, it was the tallest building in Ann Arbor. The building was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1982.

Charles and Margaret made their home at 67 East Huron Street, between Division and State Streets.[9] After Charles' death, Margaret resided at 63 East Huron.[10] In 1897, the City of Ann Arbor renumbered its streets and the 63 East Huron address became 513 East Huron.[11]

Children of Charles and Margaret (Henning) Tripp born in Ann Arbor:

2 i. Eva[2] Tripp, born 22 November 1851; died 15 August 1930 in Jackson, Jackson County, Michigan. She married 18 October 1876 in Ann Arbor, Francis Douglas Bennett.

3 ii. Ada[2] Tripp, born 16 January 1853; died 15 May 1928 in Andover, Massachusetts. She married 12 October 1881 in Ann Arbor, Rev. William Henry Ryder.

Second Generation

2. EVA[2] TRIPP (Charles[1]), born 22 November 1851 in Ann Arbor;[12] died 15 August 1930 in Jackson, Michigan.[13] She married 18 October 1876 in Ann Arbor, Francis "Frank" Douglas Bennett.[14] Frank was born 31 May 1850 in Jackson, the son of Alonzo and Maria (Gibson) Bennett;[15] died 27 August 1925 in Jackson.[16]

The Bennett family figured prominently in the early history of Jackson. Frank's grandfather, Allen, arrived in Jackson in 1836 where he was engaged in the mercantile business. He was joined by his two sons, Alonzo and Allen, soon after. In 1840 Alonzo and his partner, George Cooper, built an iron foundry. Two years later, when the railroad came through Jackson, he and his partner Sackett started a warehouse business near the depot. He established the Jackson City Bank in 1865 with William Thompson, and later that year, became president of the newly incorporated First National Bank.

After graduating from the University of Michigan, Frank became associated with Bradley DeLamater at the Central City Soap Company. The company was later sold to Procter and Gamble. Frank went on to pursue a career in banking and insurance. He was cashier at the First National Bank and later served as president of the National Union Bank.

Children of Frank and Eva (Tripp) Bennett born in Jackson, Michigan:

i. Margaret Douglass[3] Bennett, born 21 April 1878;[17] died 15 January 1958 at Jackson.[18] She was recognized for her many community activities, including the Community Chest, the YWCA, and the First Congregational Church.[19] She never married.

4 ii. John Alonzo[3] Bennett, born 18 September 1880; died 10 November 1918 in Jackson of appendicitis. He married 22 September 1906, Ethel May Heywood.

5 iii. Frank Tripp[3] Bennett, born 18 May 1882; died 3 May 1933 at Jackson. He married 19 January 1910 at Hudson, Lenawee County, Michigan, Elizabeth "Bess" Rockwell.

3. ADA[2] TRIPP (Charles[1]), born 16 January 1853 in Ann Arbor;[20] died 15 May 1928 in Andover, Massachusetts.[21] She married 12 October 1881 in Ann Arbor, Rev. William Henry Ryder.[22] He was born 24 July 1842 in Elyria, Ohio, the son of Oliver Roberts and Harriet Rachel (Jackson) Ryder;[23] died 6 April 1918 in Andover.[24]

William's parents came to Elyria in 1840 from their native Connecticut. He attended school in Oberlin, Ohio, and entered college in 1861. In 1864 he entered the 150th Regiment of the Ohio National Guard and completed his service as a second lieutenant in the 5th U.S. Colored Troops and was severely injured at the battle of Fair Oaks. He resumed his studies and graduated from Oberlin in 1866. That same year he entered the theological seminary there. He spent the last two years of seminary training at Andover Theological Seminary, graduating in 1869. Upon graduating from seminary, he was called to the pastorate at Watertown, Wisconsin. In 1870 he returned to Oberlin to teach Greek language and literature. In 1877 he succeeded the Rev. H. L. Hubbell as pastor of the First Congregational Church of Ann Arbor. He served in Ann Arbor for 11 years before accepting the chair of New Testament Interpretation at the Andover Theological Seminary in Andover, Massachusetts, in 1888. He continued to teach at Andover until his death in 1918.

William married (1) Mary Elizabeth Bushnell 22 June 1870, probably at Oberlin, Ohio. She was born 22 November 1844 at Hartford, Trumbull County, Ohio, the daughter of Seth A. and Caroline Augusta (Billings) Bushnell. She died 10 November 1878 at Ann Arbor of complications that developed after the birth of their fifth child. In 1863 she attended several terms at Oberlin until her health forced her to withdraw. She resumed her studies in 1868 when her family moved to Oberlin and finished her third year of study.

Children of William Henry and Ada (Tripp) Ryder born at Ann Arbor:

6 i. Charles[3] Tripp Ryder, born 11 February 1885; died 8 September 1950 at Colorado Springs, El Paso County, Colorado. He married 10 June 1916, Viola T. Turck.

Third Generation

4. JOHN ALONZO[3] BENNETT, born 18 September 1880;[25] died 10 November 1918 in Jackson of appendicitis.[26] He married 22 September 1906, Ethel May Heywood.[27] She was born 25 September 1880 at Jackson, the daughter of Sidney S. and Mary A. (Lyman) Heywood;[28] died 2 August 1965 in Washington, D.C.[29] She married (2) 3 January 1923 at Jackson, Robert Soutter Sinclair.[30] He was born 9 October 1872 at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, the son of Thomas M. and Caroline C. (Soutter) Sinclair.[31] He preceded her in death.

In 1910, John and Ethel owned a home at 115 Fourth Street in Jackson. John was employed as a belt manufacturer. At the time of his death in 1918, John was a Jackson City Commissioner and manager of the Jackson Carburetor Company. By 1920, Ethel, her two boys, and her widowed mother Mary were living with her sister, Harriett and her husband Gilbert Loomis, at 734 Main Street in Jackson. In 1930, now married to Robert S. Sinclair, Ethel and her two boys are living in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, with Robert and four of his children.

Children of John Alonzo and Ethel (Heywood) Bennett, born at Jackson:

i. Claude Lyman[4] Bennett, born 8 December 1907;[32] died 11 December 1907 of convulsions.[33]

ii. Frank Douglass[4] Bennett, born 13 July 1909;[34] died 16 February 1989 at Jackson.[35] He married and later divorced, Mary Alberta "Bert" Gates, who was born about 1916 in New York; died 11 November 1999 in Portland, Oregon.[36] Frank was a Certified Public Accountant in Jackson from 1943 until his death. Mary was elected the first woman mayor of Jackson in 1965 and served two terms. She married Edward Nicklaus in 1969.

iii. John Alonzo[4] Bennett, born 1 June 1913;[37] died 2 November 2003 at Columbia, Howard County, Maryland.[38] He married about 1939, Mary Jane Sheerin. She was born 10 May 1916 at Indianapolis, Indiana, the daughter of Thomas Desales and Jane Mather (Ogle) Sheerin.[39] She died 29 May 2002 at Columbia.[40] John was also known as "Sydney" Bennett.

5. FRANK TRIPP[3] BENNETT, born 18 May 1882;[41] died 3 May 1933 at Jackson.[42] He married 19 January 1910 at Hudson, Lenawee County, Michigan, Elizabeth "Bess" Rockwell.[43] Bess was born about 1886 in Lenawee County, the daughter of John and Jennie (Whitbeck) Rockwell. She died 18 March 1964 at Jackson. Frank graduated from the University of Michigan Law School in 1905. In 1907 he served as a representative in the Michigan legislature and later mayor of Jackson in 1920-21. He served on the boards of a number of Jackson manufacturing firms including Schmidt Chemical Company, Central Auto and Supply Company and Lockwood Motor Company, and headed the Parrish Water Heater Manufacturing Company. At the time of his death, he was developing resort property on Brown's Lake in Jackson County.[44]

Children of Frank and Elizabeth "Bess" Bennett:

i. Margaret[4] Bennett, born about 1921 in Michigan. She married John F. Guillaume, born about 1921 in Massachusetts, the son of Ernest M. and Margaret E. (Schmitt) Guillaume. Margaret currently resides in Scottsdale, Arizona.

6. CHARLES TRIPP[3] RYDER, born 11 February 1885;[45] died 8 September 1950 at Colorado Springs, El Paso County, Colorado.[46] He married 10 June 1916, Viola T. Turck, at New York City. She was born 5 May 1893 in New Orleans, Louisiana, and died 30 September 1969 at Colorado Springs.[47]

Charles graduated cum laude with a BA degree from Harvard in 1906. He received his Doctor of Medicine degree in 1911, also from Harvard. He was a pathologist for 25 years for Glockner-Penrose and St. Francis hospitals. He was an associate director of the Colorado Foundation for Research in Tuberculosis.

Viola graduated from Barnard College in 1913. She was active in many civic organizations in Colorado Springs including the YWCA, First Congregational Church, Visiting Nurses Association, and the United Fund.

Children of Charles and Viola, born at Colorado Springs:

i. Dr. Charles Tripp[4] Ryder, born 7 September 1917;[48] died 30 March 2007 at Tenafly, Bergen County, New Jersey. He was a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Harvard Medical School. He was an orthopedic surgeon and director of pediatric orthopedics at New York-Presbyterian Medical Center. He retired as executive vice president of medical affairs in 1982.[49]

ii. Dr. William H.[4] Ryder, born 18 May 1921; died 14 April 2001 at Colorado Springs. He married 1 May 1948, Virginia Tedrow.[50]

iii. Louise[4] Ryder, born 28 April 1923;[51] died 12 January 1959;[52] married Frederick Yager Wiselogle. He was born 18 May 1912 at Albion, Calhoun County, Michigan; died 18 September 2002 at Lake Odessa, Ionia County, Michigan. Frederick married (2) about 1963, Charlotte Pike. In 1936 Fred received his PhD. in organic chemistry from the University of Michigan and went on to teach chemistry at Johns Hopkins University from 1936 to 1946. He joined the Squibb Institute for Medical Research in New Jersey in 1946. There his team received the Lasker award from President Truman for the development of tuberculosis drugs, Isoniazid. In his 26 years at Squibb his research covered many areas including tranquilizers, vitamins, steroids, antibiotics, and arthritis treatments, before retiring to Lake Odessa in 1972.[53]

iv. Viola[4] Ryder, born 1934; married P. C. Nicholson, of Littleton, Colorado.[54]

REV. FRIEDRICH SCHMID'S DEATH RECORDS, 1834–1874, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN

Translated & transcribed by John H. Schmale and Rob Steward, 1986

The original records of Rev. Friedrich Schmid are currently housed and may be accessed in the Michigan Historical Collections, Bentley Historical Library, the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Please note that the handwriting of Rev. Schmid is not easily deciphered, in part due to his penmanship. The records contain entries written in old German script and some using English script. In addition, the pages in his records are not numbered. It is our understanding that he kept notes as he traveled and then entered then into his record books when he returned home. This may explain that while the records are fairly complete there are some gaps or omissions.

We have maintained the spelling Rev. Schmid used in the case of names and places. Items enclosed in parentheses are usually comments or notes of the translators or indicate alternate spellings or meanings. Rev. Schmid's usage or meaning of the term "Gicht" (gout) is unclear because it is used for infants as well as adults. It may have been used to indicate "swelling" of some kind, but here it has been translated as "disease" or "paralysis".

Abbreviations used are yr(s). for year(s); mo. or ms. for month(s); ds. for day(s); Ev. for Evangelisch (Evangelical/Protestant) and Cem. for cemetery. Columns with no entry are indicated by three hyphens (---); and the end of each column entry is indicated with a semi colon (;).

Rev. Schmid's Death Records are in column format as follows:
(Left hand pages – a.) "Chronological Number" of the deceased for that particular year; Name of Deceased; Religion; Parents; Marital Status or name of spouse.
(Right hand pages – b.) Age; Cause of Death; Date and Place of Death; Date and Place of Burial.
(Note: beginning in 1862, the Biblical funeral text is often listed. Although it appears on page "b." of Rev. Schmid's records we are placing it as the last entry on the page "a." line to make better use of space.)

HOGAN FAMILY REUNION, 1930

HOGAN REUNION HELD THURSDAY NEAR CLINTON (Bridgewater, August 11)

The Hogan reunion was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Juanita O'Reilly of Clinton with 62 persons present, representing 20 families.

Following a potluck dinner officers were elected as follows: President, Donald McAdam of Adrian; vice-president, Ambrose Kehoe, Clinton; and secretary-treasurer, Miss Minnie McAdam, of Adrian. Former officers were President, Ambrose Kehoe, Clinton; vice-president, W. J. Hogan, Bridgewater; and secretary-treasurer, Miss Minnie McAdam.

The youngest person present was Mary Frances Hogan of Adrian, two years old, and the oldest was Mrs. Mary McMann of Saline.

The next reunion will be held on the second Sunday in August at the home of W. N. Martin.

Robert Hogan returned from his Y. M .C. A. tour to Kentucky on Thursday. Frank Burroughs, Jr., of Grand Rapids, visited his cousin, Robert Hogan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hogan and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Martin and family attended the Hogan family reunion Thursday at the home of their sister, Mrs. Juanita O'Reilly near Clinton. There were 62 members present and four visitors. After the potluck dinner at noon the rest of the day was spent in visiting. (local)

News-Pages of GSWC

The Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County, Michigan, Inc. 4 January 2011
To Accompany Family History Capers Vol. 34, No. 2

GSWC Meetings are held at 1:30 pm at the Education Center Auditorium, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Campus, 5305 Elliott Drive, Ypsilanti, Michigan, usually the fourth Sunday of the month.

Speakers and Classes for Winter 2011
January 23, 2011
Program: "City Slickers: Finding Your Urban Ancestors." Barbara Snow will cover some special techniques for finding ancestors who lived in larger cities, including the use of city directories and some records that are specific to city dwellers. See www.barbsnow.net for more information.
Class: "Celebration of Family History."

February 27, 2011
Program: "Native American Lore of the Detroit Area, 1701 – 1842." David Irwin
Class: "There are No Dumb Questions in Genealogy." Bring your "puzzles" and "where do I look for . . ." to the meeting, we'll try to problem solve on the fly.

March 27, 2011
Program: "It's a Needle in a Haystack: Slave Research." Dr. Deborah Abbott Class: "Black Descendants of Old Ann Arbor." Jean Dixon Winborn. Information on local African American families.

April 17, 2011 (NOTE DATE CHANGE)
Program: "Civil War" (Joint Meeting with Washtenaw County Historical Society). Tom Collier
Class: "Photo Identification" A panel will present photographs. Your participation is welcome to identify the "who" or "where" of these pictures. We expect a fun filled adventure!

Report of Fall 2010 Programs
September 26, 2010: Karen Krugman's talk was "Seven Flags You Are Barking Up The Wrong Tree." Her daily genealogy blog is located at: http://genealogyframeofmind.blogspot.com. If you are evaluating material you received from someone else, here are some items that should call for further investigation: Your ancestor is not named in the supposed parent's will. All birth dates in the document are estimates. There are no places or dates. The birth place is in a state before it became a state. The parents' age at the birth of a child is before 10 or after 70. Also watch for marriage to two wives on exactly the same date. A life span of over 100 years should also be double checked. No sources for any of the information, or only marriage and newspaper, no census. The remedy for these problems: Never rely totally on someone else. Document everything. Use both primary and secondary sources. Use all available censuses (also called "do your homework"). Know your geography and how boundaries changed. Don't believe everything on the internet. Use common sense.

Class: Panel: Bobbie Snow talked about "10 Steps to Effective Research." Work from the known to the unknown. Check and double check. See Bobbie's website: www.barbsnow.net. Judy Williston covered MA and CT, use of a professional genealogist and town historian, and using maps in your research.

October 24, 2010: Grace Bliss Smith presented "Bringing Genealogy News, Podcasts, and More to YOU: How to Quickly Set Up a News Reader and Subscribe to 'Genie' News Feeds." Grace discussed the definition of blogs, which are web logs- websites with the most recent "post" appearing at the top of the page. She showed us how to subscribe to an RSS feed for blogs that might be of interest. Cyndi's List has a blog list, as does the Genealogy Blog Finder: http://blogfinder.genealogue.com. Also see the 25 most popular genealogy blogs at http://www.progenealogists.com/top25blogs2009.htm . Google Reader is a good site to use to set up genealogy information to flow to your computer. You will need a free Google account, and then can add "subscriptions" to sites that interest you.

Grace Bliss Smith reports: Grace has learned that the Bloglines website will continue. You can read more detail about MerchantCircle and its plans for the Bloglines service at the MerchantCircle blog (http://www.merchantcircle.com/blog/) and the Ask.com blog (http://blog.ask.com/)

Class: Carolyn Griffin presented "Artifact to Archives: the Story of Ypsilanti Gunsmith, William Worden" her search for information on the Civil War gun she and her husband purchased. She used atlases; censuses; city directories; city, Civil War, county, and family histories; gazetteers; genealogical and historical societies; libraries; and newspapers to discover information about William Horace Worden.

December 5, 2010: Martha Churchill shared "How I find Weird Things in History." She contrasted Interurban information (see her Arcadia book with Mark Hildebrandt) and items from her newest book at Arcadia Press, "Milan."

Class: "Three religious denominations and their records." Bobbie Snow covered Quaker research. (See her website for details.) She mentioned repositories located at Swarthmore, Guilford, Haverford and Earlham Colleges. See http://www.quaker.org/

Carolyn Griffin presented information on Baptists. Her handout covered ministers (including her relative Isaac Lucado) and places to find Anabaptist information www.anabaptists.org, and cited Baptist distinctives (what makes a Baptist a Baptist).

Dick Miller showed some interesting websites about the Brethren. Websites such as www.brethren.org, or www.brethrenchurch.org contain much information on the church. Rootsweb has a mailing list on the Brethren. Genealogical information is available at www.cob-net.org/genhis. A magazine "Brethren Roots" is very helpful, as is a national organization called Fellowship of the Brethren Genealogists. Dick's interest came because his Beckner line belonged to this denomination. See the website of www.brethrenheritagecenter.org in Brookville, Ohio.

Library of Michigan: Here's the latest information, from December, with more available at their website http://michigan.gov/libraryofmichigan.

1) Materials from the Library of Michigan's collections will be available for in-library use only, no more interlibrary loan to others.

2) The Library of Michigan will no longer borrow materials from other libraries (interlibrary loan from others) for public patrons.

3) The Library of Michigan will no longer be a participating MeLCat library.

4) The Library of Michigan will be open to the public Monday through Friday and will be closed on Saturday and Sunday.

The Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County is pleased to announce a brand new web site, coming soon. You will shortly be able to go to www.washtenawgenealogy.org and take a look! We owe special thanks to our long-time webmaster, Sharon Brevoort, for all of her previous hard work. A committee of: Byron Aldrich, Marcia McCrary, Ed Redmer, Bobbie Snow, and Jan Tripp will attempt to do what Sharon did by herself. New information is being posted on the web, including the catalog of the GSWC books at the LDS Library in Saline. We have many plans for new materials to be added. There is a Forum area to communicate ideas, and have discussions on genealogical topics of interest. We have planned a members-only area, with many interesting items, and more to come. The website is still under construction. Stay tuned - we'll send an email with further information.

All GSWC Members are urged to contribute their 5 generation Ancestor Charts. These are indexed, and included in the Family History Capers. This is an excellent way to share surnames with others interested in genealogy! Bring them to a meeting and give them to Marcia McCrary, or mail them to the PO Box, with a note that they are for the Ancestor Chart program. We have had 322 members who contributed their charts. The charts are kept at the joint library with the Family History Center at the LDS church in Saline.

On sale now! The Washtenaw County, Michigan Plat Maps 1856 and 1864 is $20 instead of the original $35. Contact Judy Williston at 734-483-1347 or email her at judy.williston@emich.edu. Atlases can also be ordered via regular mail sent to the GSWC Post Office Box 7155, Ann Arbor, MI 48107-7155.

Marcia McCrary and Dick Miller need help with the News-Pages! You could have readers hanging on your every word. Please volunteer for a write-up!
